

Special Call for Papers for InduTwin Network Dortmund International Research Conference 2021

On 24th-26th June 2021

Taking Place at Dortmund University of Applied Sciences and Arts

Researchers, lecturers, master and PhD students are invited to submit and discuss their current research work and projects in the fields of internationalization in higher education, the “new normal” international cooperation, the cooperation between the academia and the industry as well as the acceleration of digital transformation in higher education due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Let us analyze how deep the digital transformation has been during 2020, the acceleration of teaching skills and their new role in education, the regulation context and the challenges in public policies to deal with the new normal. What opportunities and what digital technologies are offered to teaching and its impact on students of the 21st century,

We invite each university in the InduTwin network and each INILAT member to submit one paper<sup>1</sup> exploring scientific findings, practical reports and educational topics in one of the following topics related to “Practice-integrated international study programs”:

- Cooperation between Academia and Industry
- Digital Transformation
- Education, eLearning & Blended Learning
- Economics & Business Administration
- Information & Communication Technology
- Innovation & Entrepreneurship
- International Cooperation
- Internationalization of SMEs & Cross-Border Projects
- Project Management, Quality & Sustainability

All papers must be original and not simultaneously submitted to another journal or conference. Recommended volume is 4 to 8 pages (in English only).

Please find the template attached.

Please submit your contribution as a PDF document via:

<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=dortmundirc2021>

The deadline for papers submission is 1st of May 2021.

The IRC looks to promote international networking of participants. The challenge is to provoke discussion and interaction during the sessions. Authors should prepare 1-2 questions to the audience.

For further questions concerning your submission please contact us via InduTwin@fh-dortmund.de.

More details regarding conference will be announced via the website <https://go-study-europe.de/>

Please note: due to COVID-19 restrictions, we will also give a possibility to speakers and participants to take part in the conference online. In case of the more severe restrictions, we will move the conference to the completely online format. We will keep you updated.
